

Role Description
Title of Role:	Front of House Volunteer
Location:	London Canal Museum
Commitment Required:	2 days or more a month, for a minimum of 6 months
Hours:	9.45 am to 4.45 pm (minimum requirement) The museum opens to the public at 10 am and closes at 4.30pm; volunteers leave once all of the closing down procedures have been successfully completed.
Reports to:	Volunteer Manager
Objectives of Role: To ensure the museum operates in a safe manner, create a supportive and welcoming atmosphere, and provide excellent customer service care to those that call or visit the museum. This is done by knowing which events are happening in the museum and when, how to deal with a variety of enquiries and how to undertake all the necessary procedures to be a successful Front of House Volunteer.
Outline of tasks and activities to be undertaken: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To greet visitors, record admissions, take payment, give a mini-guide etc. • To answer the telephone and record all messages in the log book, pass on all messages to the relevant contact. • To handle initial inquiries about group visits, completing the form and passing it to the Groups or Education Co-ordinator as appropriate for them to follow up the enquiry. • To serve customers in the shop. • To keep the desk area clean and tidy, everything in its rightful place, emptying the bin and ensuring no personal possessions are left behind to clutter it for others. • To serve refreshments to groups (if booked in advance). Prepare and clear up as necessary. • To check the education room and tidy if necessary. • To ensure that there are adequate supplies of tea, coffee, milk etc.
Outline of additional tasks and activities to be undertaken when the museum is quiet: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To dust and stock the shop shelves. Stock is kept in the cupboards under the shelves and on the shelves below the Measham display. • To get to know the stock especially the books. This will help with sales as customers frequently ask for guidance when choosing books. • To check the logbook and send off requested leaflets etc noting in the log book when sent • To tidy and restock the museum leaflet rack, throw out those leaflets which are out of date and request more if needed especially those from boat trip organisers. • To tidy the children's area ensuring that there is a supply of paper and pencils.
Skills, Qualifications and Personal Qualities Required (Essential): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good communications skills. Have good level of spoken and listening English, particularly when on the telephone. • Basic numeracy skills • Ability and willingness to learn about the history of the museum, Regent's canal and the London canal network. • Ability and willingness to learn to use the electronic till. • Willingness to follow procedures. • Willingness to seek assistance when necessary.

Skills, Qualifications and Personal Qualities Required (Desirable):

- Knowledge about Regent's canal and London canals
- Customer care experience and skills
- Ability to share information and knowledge to fellow volunteers and visitors without being asked.

Standards of behavior and dress:

- Smartly dressed including wearing name tag
- Polite, courteous and attentive to customers
- Respectful and supportive to fellow volunteers and staff.
- To make oneself aware of forthcoming events and changes to procedures.

Training will be provided on the following areas/tasks:

- All aspects of the desk/shop tasks
- Health and Safety
- London Canal Museum policies and procedures including but not exclusively, claiming expenses, computer and Internet use and child protection policy.

Reviewed by:

Volunteer Manager

Approved by:

Chairman of Trustees

Date: April 2010